FROM THE EDITOR

Post-holiday reality has set in. All those things we chose to put off until after the holidays are now at our doorsteps. For many of us, the new semester is right around the corner. Besides our regular teaching duties, we also have many FAR duties to take care of. One important duty is to attend the NCAA Convention in San Antonio. This brief edition of the FARA Voice is intended to highlight FARA programming at the Convention. I hope to see many of you there.

Dennis Leighton, editor
FARA Secretary-Treasurer
FAR, University of New England
FARA at 2011 NCAA Convention

FARA will have its usual presence at the NCAA Convention in San Antonio from January 11 to 15. Faculty Athletics Representatives attending the convention are encouraged to visit the FARA Information Booth located in the Convention Center for information about FARA and to receive programming updates. The FARA Business Meeting will be held on Thursday, January 13, from 2:15 to 3:30 p.m. at the Marriott Rivercenter. Following the regular meeting, FARs will be invited to remain in the meeting room for divisional outbreaks in order to discuss hot topics.

As in previous years, FARA is sponsoring two Educational Sessions. The first is titled Academic Accountability -- Who is Responsible? This session is scheduled for Thursday, January 13 from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. Roger Caves, former FAR at San Diego State University and President of FARA from 2008-09, will moderate. The second session is titled Academic Success and Missed Class Time -- Cross-Campus Strategies to Facilitate Improvement. This session is scheduled for Thursday, January 13 from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. David Clough, FAR from the University of Colorado and current President-Elect of FARA will moderate.

Finally, be sure to review the positions adopted by FARA on the various Legislative Proposals in each division. The reports of the divisional FARA Legislative Review Committees are available on the FARA web site (http://www.farawebsite.org).
